

*Saint Ignatius College invites you to an evening with
Nova Peris OAM OLY MAICD*

Nova Peris OAM OLY MAICD was Australia's first Aboriginal woman elected to Federal Parliament and the first Aboriginal Australian and Northern Territorian to win an Olympic Gold Medal.

Nova is one of a very few athletes who have represented their country in two different sports; hockey and athletics in separate Olympic Games. She is the only person in the entire world to make back-to-back Summer Olympic Games finals in two different sports.

In recent times, Nova has been addressing licensing issues regarding the Aboriginal flag in a campaign titled #freetheflag

Saint Ignatius College Geelong is delighted to host the 1997 Young Australian of The Year Award Recipient, the 1997 Medal of The Order of Australia Recipient, The 2000 Australian Sports Medal Recipient, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Hall of Fame Recipient and the 2018 Australian Award for Excellence in Women's Leadership Award, Nova Peris as part of our annual International Women's Day Celebrations.
